

POVERTY IS MORE THAN DOLLARS & CENTS

“When I received a raise at work, as a single mom, I lost my medical and food benefits. Because of the Heartland United Way, I received assistance to get caught up on my rent and learned how to budget to live beyond benefits. I have been on my new budget for five months.”

United Way funds programs that meet basic needs and promote financial stability. Last year, 1,718 individuals attended United Way-funded financial education classes.
